

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF FORESTRY

Master of Forest Conservation (MFC) Program

FOR 1412H: Natural Resource Management I (Module III Forest Inventory)
International Seminar Series in Forest Conservation

Inventory and Monitoring Approaches in Forest Conservation: from Tree to Landscape Scale

Series Coordinator: Prof Edward Wilson FRSB
ted.wilson@utoronto.ca

10 – 11 AM, Fridays, November 2016

Seminar 1: Tree Scale

10 AM Friday 4 November 2016

Cumbria's Top 50 Trees: the 360° toolkit tree recording method

Iris Glimmerveen MSc

Project Coordinator, Cumbria's Top 50 Trees Project
Director, Woodland Inspirations, Cumbria, England

Seminar 2: Stand Scale

10 AM Friday 11 November 2016

Continuous Cover Forestry: the AFI inventory methodology and network of research stands

Philippe Morgan FICFor

President, Pro Silva Europe; Vice-President, Association Futaie Irrégulière (AFI)
Director, SelectFor, Aberystwyth, Wales

Seminar 3: Forest Scale

10 AM Friday 18 November 2016

Ancient pinewood restoration at Loch Arkaig, Scotland: combining timber and conservation inventory and monitoring approaches in forest planning

Peter Lowe MICFor

Senior Ancient Woodland Restoration Project Manager, Woodland Trust, Scotland

Seminar 4: Landscape Scale

10 AM Friday 25 November 2016

Monitoring the state of forests and its importance in Europe (and beyond)

Tanja Sanders PhD

Research Scientist
Thünen Institute of Forest Ecosystems, Eberswalde, Germany

Seminars will be presented by video conferencing in Room ESC 4001
All are welcome to attend